Fort Loudoun, 1756-1760, was the southwestern outpost of the English in colonial America and the first important English-built structure in the Tennessee Valley. The site of Fort Loudoun lay neglected for more than 150 years. It was marked by the Colonial Dames in 1917, and 5.6 acres of the site were given by the owners to the State of Tennessee in 1933. The Fort Loudoun Association was formed for the purpose of restoring and maintaining the fort as a memorial to the men who formed the garrison. Memberships: Life: $100; Sustaining: $25; Active: $3. Checks should be made to the Fort Loudoun Association and mailed to Mr. Robert A. Culver, Tennessee Valley Bank, Knoxville, Tennessee. The Association puts out a very interesting and informative booklet which tells briefly the story of Fort Loudoun; ask for a copy.

Alan T. Calhoun, Box 1713, Spartanburg, S. C., sends the announcement of the CALHOUN, HAMILTON, BASKIN AND RELATED FAMILIES, By L. D. McPherson, 1957. The book is offered as typical of an estimated 30% of the population of the United States who are of Scotch-Irish descent. Mr. Calhoun says: "....it is a painstaking and careful piece of work, selling at a very reasonable price. So far as I know there is no available genealogy in print concerned with the Calhoun family; Mr. McPherson's book takes up a number of different branches of the Calhoun family in great detail and it can certainly be highly recommended to your readers, especially since it has an index with references to each name mentioned in the text of the book." The book sells for $10.00; address: Mr. L. D. McPherson, 474 Severn Avenue, Davis Island, Tampa 6, Florida.

John Frederick Dorman's THE VIRGINIA GENEALOGIST is now completing its first year. This is the one and only publication devoted exclusively to genealogical records of Virginia, and Mr. Dorman is doing an excellent job. His abstracts of wills, for example, are accurate, complete, full of detail and well arranged. This worthy publication deserves the support of everyone interested in Virginia families. Price: $5 per year; address: Box 4883, Washington 8, D. C.

Volume III of Southern Kith and Kin, MAJOR JAMES SCARBOROUGH, HIS ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS, is a record of Major James Scarborough, Revolutionary soldier, of Edgecombe Co., N. C., his ancestors and descendants, and many connected families. There is a chapter on the Scarboroughs of the Eastern Shore, and a detailed record of William Scarborough, of Bacon's Rebellion, who was executed by Governor Berkeley, of Virginia, for his participation in the Rebellion, and from whom Maj. James Scarborough was descended. The history is concerned primarily with the descendants of Lawrence and Allen Scarborough, sons of Major James, who migrated to Georgia immediately after the Revolutionary War. (A few copies of Southern Kith and Kin, Vols. I and II are available, and have been reduced to clear: Vol. I, THE LOCKETTS, $10; Vol. II, THE DAVIS FAMILY, $12.50.) Vol. III sells for $15; address: Mrs. Dallas Scarborough, Box 608, Abilene, Texas.

Mrs. H. A. Knorr, 1401 Linden Street, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, is doing a magnificent job of compiling and publishing the earliest marriage bonds of Virginia. Mrs. Knorr has published eleven books to date, and we are all looking forwarding to more volumes of this important series of Virginia source material. (See inside of the front cover of this issue of TNC for details.)

An error in the March, 1956, issue of TNC, page 135, first and second paragraphs, has been called to our attention by Mr. Allan L. Poe, Box 111, Lenoir, N. C.: "The territory comprising the present county of Catawba was never a part of Tryon county. This section, together with a narrow strip across the northern edge of the present Lincoln county, lay north of the Granville Line, and was a part of Rowan and then Burke counties until, in the early 1780's, it was taken from Burke and added to Lincoln, by two successive alterations of the Burke-Lincoln county line. Reference to the legislative acts would give you the exact dates of these transfers; speaking from memory, I think they occurred about 1782 and 1784 [this is correct--Ed.]. Probably the Catawba County Historical Association could be considerably more exact about this matter than I can."

The MISSISSIPPI GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGE, A Quarterly Devoted to Early Families and Records of Mississippi, is now completing its third year under the able editorship of Katie-Prince Ward Esker, 214 Massachusetts Avenue, N. The June, 1957, issue of TNC carried an announcement of the forthcoming publication of THE MARRIAGE RECORDS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., 1733-1868, to include many Bible and parish records. So many Bible records were located, however, that it has now become necessary to make a separate volume of them, supplemented by tombstone records from every corner of the county. MARRIAGE RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE will be released around first of the year 1958 at a pre-publication price of $10.00 (afterward, $12.50). BIBLE AND TOMBSTONE RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE is scheduled for summer of 1958, at pre-publication price of $10.00 (afterward, $12.50). ABSTRACTS OF WILLS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, 1733-1856, published in 1956, now sells for $12.50. Order from: Mrs. W. Gray Williams, Arlington Terrace, Apt. 112, Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

RECORDS OF THE ANCESTRY OF JOHN PARK CRAVENS

This seventeen-page booklet contains a great deal of data on the following Southern families: Conner, Craven, Harwell, Herndon, Lane and Rice. However, lack of organization and indexing make it difficult to locate and follow a line of descent, and the royal ancestry is unproven. Data on later generations is no doubt authentic in spite of a complete lack of references. Persons interested in these families would find the material interesting and worth while. Address: Mr. John Park Cravens, 813 S. Glenwood Avenue, Russellville, Arkansas.

GEORGE MICHAEL ELLER AND DESCENDANTS OF HIS IN AMERICA

This 485-page book, including a 45-page index, contains a wealth of material on the Eller family, descendants of George Michael Eller who probably came from Germany to Pennsylvania around 1750, and who left a will dated 1778, Frederick Co., Maryland. Some of his children settled in Rowan, Davidson, Wilkes and Ashe Cos., N. C. The volume is well organized, indexed, and is illustrated; also contains data on related families of Colvard, Graybill, Hook, McNiel, Stoker, Van Noy (Vannoy), Welker and Whittington. Address: Mr. James W. Hook, 80 Temple Street, New Haven 6, Connecticut.

SURRY COUNTY, VIRGINIA, RECORDS, 1652-1684

These early court records of an old Virginia county (Surry County formed 1652 from James City County) were abstracted a few years ago by Mrs. Elizabeth T. Davis, and later purchased by Mrs. Jeanette H. Chapman. This volume of 206 pages (including a name index of 31 pages) covers Book I, 1652-1672, and Book II, 1671-1684. A wealth of material may be found on these pages: indentures, petitions, depositions, deeds, bills of sale, Bible records, marriage agreements, and so on, all well indexed. The original records, from which these abstracts were made, have since become illegible and cannot be abstracted or worked with, which makes this publication all the more valuable. Address: Mrs. Jeanette H. Chapman, Smithfield, Virginia.

INDEX AND DIGEST TO HATHAWAY'S NORTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER

This book was compiled and edited by the late Worth S. Ray, and has now been reprinted by the Southern Book Company of Baltimore, Maryland. Hathaway published eleven issues of his North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register between 1900 and 1903, but no index was prepared. Mr. Ray made an index and digest of the data in those eleven issues of Hathaway's magazine, but, unfortunately, it is not 100% complete. Ray's Index is, however, an aid to anyone doing research in Hathaway, for there is a vast amount of data to be found in the magazines. The Index sells for $10.00. Address; Southern Book Company, St. James Hotel, Charles Street at Centre, Baltimore 1, Maryland.

COLONIAL GRANVILLE COUNTY AND ITS PEOPLE

This material, compiled by the late Worth S. Ray, is a hodge-podge of data, much of it more in the way of miscellaneous notes than organized genealogies or full copies of source material, since only a few families were of interest to the compiler. Included are notes from Anson, Buncombe, Caswell, Chatham, Cleveland, Duplin, Franklin and Warren Counties, N. C., and various other places, far and wide. Thousands of persons are mentioned, and may be located through the index, and, if you are lucky, one of them might be your Granville County ancestor. This book sells for $7.50, and has been reprinted by the Southern Book Company, St. James Hotel, Charles Street at Centre, Baltimore 1, Maryland. (NOTE: Mr. Ray published a series of four books on North Carolina which he later bound into one volume under the collective title of LOST TRIBES OF NORTH CAROLINA. First, Index and Digest to Hathaway's North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register; second, Colonial Granville and its People; third, Mecklenburg Signers and Their Neighbors; and fourth, Old Albemarle and its Absentee Landlords. The Southern Book Company has copies of original edition of both of these last two for sale, as well as the two reviewed above.)

INDEX TO N. C. REVOLUTIONARY WAR PAY VOUCHERS

Compiled by William Perry Johnson

There are approximately 50,000 Revolutionary War pay vouchers on file in the Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina (216 file boxes with around 250 vouchers in each box). These pay vouchers are of three general types: one, pay to soldiers of the N. C. Continental Line; two, pay to soldiers of the N. C. Militia; and three, pay to persons who furnished supplies to the American forces. The entire State of North Carolina is covered, as well as Tennessee. The thousands of names found on these vouchers come close to forming a census or North Carolina and Tennessee for the Revolutionary period (Tennessee a part of North Carolina until 1790).

These Revolutionary War pay vouchers should be used in conjunction with the N. C. Revolutionary Accounts, also to be found in the Archives. (There is an unpublished, typed Index to the N. C. Revolutionary Accounts in the Search Room of the Archives.) When doing research in these Accounts and Vouchers bear in mind that the bulk of the vouchers will correspond exactly with entries in the Accounts. However, hundreds of names will appear in the Accounts for which there will be no vouchers at all. Likewise, there are many vouchers for which there are no corresponding entries in the Accounts.

Most of the vouchers indicate the district in which payment was made, and in a few instances the county is named. The payee usually, but not always, resided in the county or district named, and this is very helpful in identifying the payee.

There are often several vouchers with the name of the payee the same on each, but more than one individual is usually involved. For example, there are seven vouchers for Matthew Woods. It might be difficult to know just how many Matthews are involved, even though the district is given, since each district included several counties. Extensive research by a capable genealogist is often required in such cases.

There are always great waves of migration during and immediately after every war, and the Revolutionary War was no exception. Thousands of these North Carolinians left the state in the 1780's, and by the time the 1790 census was taken were living in South Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee or elsewhere. Thus this Index to N. C. Revolutionary War Pay Vouchers will be invaluable to those persons seeking the origin of their Revolutionary ancestry.

Many men who were too old to fight were eager to aid the American cause by furnishing supplies. The Quakers, Dunkards, etc., refused to fight but many are found to have furnished supplies, as proven by these pay vouchers. Several widows also furnished supplies. Descendants of those who furnished supplies, as well as those who served as soldiers, are eligible for membership in the D. A. R., S. A. R. and other hereditary-patriotic societies.

The majority of the pay vouchers are dated in the early 1780's, with a few dated in the late 1770's and early 1790's. Often, there are names, dates, etc., on the backs of the vouchers that aid in identifying the payees. Many of the vouchers are faded and crumbling with age and several are fragmentary or illegible. The Archives will furnish photostats of the vouchers for fifty cents each, or $1 if both front and back are copied. Address: The N. C. State Dept. of Archives & History, Box 1881, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Shown in the Index, which follows, are the names of the payee and the county or district, if given, as abstracted from each voucher. (See illustration for photocopies of samples of the three general types of vouchers.) For data on the districts named in the vouchers, see N. C. Judicial Districts, 1776-1790, in this issue of TNC.

MAP SHOWING THE APPROXIMATE BOUNDARIES OF THE EIGHT JUDICIAL DISTRICTS IN NORTH CAROLINA IN 1790

N. C. JUDICIAL DISTRICTS, 1776-1790

Researchers often find references in North Carolina records to certain districts, for example: Hillsborough District, Salisbury District, or Wilmington District. These districts refer to judicial districts, and are found in many official documents, such as military and census records. The first districts, as such, were established in 1746, when Edenton, Wilmington and Edgecombe Districts were created. In 1754, two more districts were added: New Bern and Salisbury. By 1790 there were eight districts in the state. In 1806 an act was passed redistricting the state and establishing a Superior Court in each county.

There were just six judicial districts in North Carolina in 1776: 1. Edenton District (consisting of Bertie, Chowan, Currituck, Hertford, Martin, Pasquotank, Perquimans and Tyrrell Counties); 2. Halifax District (consisting of Bute, Edgecombe, Halifax and Northampton Counties); 3. Hillsboro(ugh) District (consisting of Chatham, Granville, Orange and Wake Counties); 4. New Bern District (consisting of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Dobbs, Hyde, Johnston and Pitt Counties); 5. Salisbury District (consisting of Anson, Guilford, Mecklenburg, Rowan, Surry and Tryon Counties, in North Carolina, and the District of Washington in what is now Tennessee); 6. Wilmington District (consisting of Bladen, Brunswick, Cumberland, Duplin, New Hanover and Onslow Counties).

A seventh district, Morgan District, was formed in 1782 from Salisbury District, and took in Burke, Lincoln, Rutherford and Wilkes Counties, North Carolina, and the Tennessee counties of Davidson, Greene, Sullivan and Washington. (Morgan District was divided in 1784, and the four Tennessee counties became Washington District.)

An eighth district, Fayetteville District (sometimes called Cape Fear District), was formed in 1787, and took Richmond County from Salisbury District, and took Cumberland, Moore, Robeson and Sampson Counties from Wilmington District.

Thus the eight districts in North Carolina, 1790, were Edenton, Fayetteville, Halifax, Hillsboro, Morgan, New Bern, Salisbury and Wilmington (see map).

The major changes in the districts between 1776 and 1790 are as follows:

1777 - Camden Co. formed from Pasquotank Co. and placed in Edenton District.
Wilkes Co. formed from Surry Co. and the District of Washington and placed in Salisbury District. In 1782 Wilkes Co. was placed in Morgan District.
Burke Co. formed from Rowan Co. and placed in Salisbury District; placed in Morgan District in 1782.
Caswell Co. formed from Orange Co. and placed in Hillsboro District.
Nash Co. formed from Edgecombe Co. and placed in Halifax District.
Martin Co. taken from Edenton District and placed in Halifax District.

1778 - Jones Co. formed from Craven Co. and placed in New Bern District.

1779 - Gates Co. formed from Chowan, Hertford & Perquimans Cos. and placed in Edenton District.
Wayne Co. formed from Dobbs Co. and placed in New Bern District.
Bute Co. abolished and Franklin and Warren Cos. formed from it and placed in Halifax District.
Tryon Co. abolished and Lincoln and Rutherford Cos. formed from it and placed in Salisbury District; placed in Morgan District in 1782.
Randolph Co. formed from Guilford Co. and placed in Hillsboro District; placed in Salisbury District in 1789.
Montgomery Co. formed from Anson Co. and placed in Salisbury District.
Richmond Co. formed from Anson Co. and placed in Salisbury District; placed in Fayetteville District in 1787.
1784 - Sampson Co. formed from Duplin Co. and placed in Wilmington District; placed in Fayetteville District in 1787.
Moore Co. formed from Cumberland Co. and placed in Wilmington District; placed in Fayetteville District in 1787.
1785 - Rockingham Co. formed from Guilford Co. and placed in Salisbury District; placed in Hillsboro District in 1789.
1787 - Robeson Co. formed from Bladen Co. and placed in Wilmington District, but later same year placed in Fayetteville District.
1788 - Iredell Co. formed from Rowan Co. and placed in Salisbury District.
1789 - Stokes Co. formed from Surry Co. and placed in Salisbury District.
Anson Co. taken from Salisbury District and placed in Fayetteville District.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY MARRIAGE LICENSES, 1797-1801

NOTE: William T. Muse, Clerk of Court for Pasquotank County, North Carolina, around 1800, had the forethought to enter into the Court Minutes of Pasquotank County the marriage licenses he issued while he was in office, from September, 1797, through December, 1801. There are 160 licenses listed, covering 52 months. The marriage bonds have been lost for approximately one-third of these licenses, with the result that this is the one and only record of the marriages of over 50 Pasquotank couples, between 1797 and 1801. 1755 TAX LIST OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY

New Hanover County, N. C., was formed in 1729 from Craven County. Several tax lists dated in the mid-1700's have been preserved for New Hanover County, but this 1755 tax list was chosen to go along with the other 1755 tax lists of N. C. counties which are being currently published in TNC. In 1755, New Hanover County embraced all of present-day Brunswick, New Hanover, and Pender Counties, and the southern third of Columbus County. The total number of white male taxables (aged 16 and over) in 1755 was 396; Negro men, 791; Negro women, 534; Negro boys aged between 12 and 16, 55. The 1755 population was approximately one-twentieth what it is today. (Archives, File No. T. O. 105)

ABSTRACTS OF PENSION APPLICATIONS OF NORTH CAROLINA SOLDIERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

(10) JAMES STEVENSON, N. C., S7644
Johnston Co., N. C., 29 Nov. 1842--James Stevenson, aged 80 or 81, was born in Va., but has resided in Johnston County since he was five years old. Entered service in 1779 under Capt. John Whitly for a tour of 5 months. Marched to S. C. and was in Battle of Brier Creek in State of Georgia. Genl. Ashe commanded the N. C. Militia. The Americans were defeated in the battle and retreated down the Savannah River and remained in garrison something like a month after the battle, defending the country.

Was informed at the time that the Americans had about 2,500 men engaged in the battle, and the British about the same number, and that a number of the men were killed and drowned in the river. Were near a town called Pickyburg(?), S. C., where they were discharged. A Major John Painter(?) gave him his discharge, which he kept for many years; cannot read, but knew the paper by its looks. Was informed by some persons to whom he showed it, that it could not be read and was finally lost or destroyed.

Was absent from home six months, within 8 days, and returned home and went on no other tour himself but hired a man named Abraham Johnson to take his place in a militia tour of 3 months and paid him $100, a mare and provisions. Was himself called out twice against the Tories, but for only a few days each time. Has no record of his age. The Bible in which it was entered being given to a brother, who died, and the Bible has been carried out of the country. He knew Bryant Adams, a First Sergeant, and Lt. Mathew McCullers(?), both of Johnston County, but now dead.

Johnston Co., N. C., 30 Dec. 1843--affidavit of Jesse Adams, son of Bryant Adams, Senr., deceased. Also, letter, 16 Jan. 1843, R. M. Saunders(?), House of Representatives, to Pension Office. Second Declaration of James Stevenson dated 28 Nov. 1843. Vouched for by James Lassiter, a clergyman, and Robert W. Stevens, J. P., both of Johnston County. Supplemental declaration made 28 Aug. 1844.
